The School of Business undergraduate and graduate programs support the College of Charleston’s mission to prepare socially responsible students for career opportunities around the world. With dual accreditation in business and accounting by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business International (AACSB), the School of Business offers essential business disciplines while teaching students the local, national and international implications of managing and operating a business in the global arena.

More than 2,900 undergraduate students
65 graduate students

70 full-time faculty
27 adjunct faculty

9 majors
1 honors program
10 interdisciplinary minors
6 concentration areas
2 graduate degrees – M.S. in Accountancy and an MBA
1 Student Success Center

Majors
- Accounting
- Business Administration (with concentrations)
- Economics
- Finance
- Hospitality and Tourism Management
- International Business
- Marketing
- Commercial Real Estate Finance
- Supply Chain Management

Minors
- Business Administration
- Economics
- Entrepreneurship
- Finance
- Global Logistics and Transportation
- Global Trade
- Hospitality and Tourism Management
- Leadership, Change and Social Responsibility
- Marketing
- Real Estate

Centers of Excellence
The School of Business has several Centers of Excellence and initiatives that support specific industries, conduct research and help to strengthen our ties with the global business community:

- Carter Real Estate Center
- Center for Entrepreneurship
- George G. Spaulding Distinguished Executive Speaker Series
- Global Business Resource Center
- Center for Public Choice and Market Process
- ImpactX (formerly ICAT)
- Office of Economic Analysis
- Office of Tourism Analysis
- Think Differently Forum